ROCHESTER FREEDOM SINGERS
NOMINATION FORM FOR ANNUAL FREEDOM AWARD - FALL 1993

Nominee Name : Ramona Santorelli

What qualifies this individual for The Freedom Award ?

In the tradition of Susan B. Anthony, Ramona deserves the award for her groundbreaking efforts in the Topfree Movement. Ramona as inspiration and spiritual center has brought this issue coast to coast. Through her efforts the law has been changed. Since July of 1992, women in New York have a legal right to enjoys the same comforts that men have taken for granted since 1939 (?).

Brief Biographical Information If Available:

Born in Long Island in 1958. Earned basketball scholarship to St. John Fisher's in 1976. Professional in basketball magic, tricks, clowning. Works with various groups speaking and conducting workshops: Mens AntiViolence Groups at Genessee Hospital, Alternatives to Violence Groups with the Quakers, Rochester Eating DisOrders, Gay Alliance, various colleges.

Resources For Further Research on Candidate:

Will supply if needed

Nominee Address : 32 Girton Pl.

Nominee Phone No. : 244-1640

Nominator's Name : Susan David